

Addition Word Problems

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read each story. Use the pictures to help you. Write the answer in the box.

Tom counts 3 figs. A friend brings 2 more. How many figs are there in all?

A large rectangular area containing a grid of 72 dots arranged in 4 rows and 18 columns. The dots are small and dark, spaced evenly across the grid.

There are 8 watermelons in the box. Lily puts in 3 more. How many watermelons are in the box now?

A large rectangular area containing a grid of 72 dots arranged in 4 rows and 18 columns. The dots are small, dark gray circles, spaced evenly apart to guide letter formation.